A special meeting of the Town Council was held on December 17, 1889, to discuss the problem of proposed annexation to the city of Bondy. Dr. Edward Allen of the State Board of Health presented the health hazards caused by overflowing septic tanks. He stated that there was a need for proper planning to maintain health that does not have any other way of correcting conditions about the sewer. The situation has gotten so severe that strict enforcement will be necessary. Bondy is one of the few large communities that do not have a sewer and almost 80% of the residents are having problems with sewage, for which there is no ready solution. Dr. Allen has asked for the sewage to be treated, but the sewage situation cannot be corrected. Newer, he defined an overflow from septic tanks and also urged water. Dr. Allen stated that the Bondy Health has not faced correction of all conditions in order because they know that the town has been trying to establish sewers. As soon as power is on operation, all residents whose septic tanks systems are not working properly will be faced to connect to the sewer. Dr. John Caballin of the State Engineer's department made the sewer charge against the charge for ten feet, and if paid within five years. Anyone who wishes to connect to the sewer must get permission from the town, and they will be billed quarterly.
